

(b) The phrase "correctional institution" as used in the Interstate Agreement on Detainers, with reference to correctional institutions in this State means any institution or facility referred to in § 689 of this article and the jail of any county or the [City of Baltimore] BALTIMORE CITY DETENTION CENTER.

645M.

(a) The earnings of prisoners shall be collected by the Division of Parole and Probation [or the warden of the Baltimore City jail]. From these earnings the Division or the Department shall pay the following:

- (1) The cost of providing food, lodging and clothing by the place of incarceration to the State or the County;
- (2) Court ordered payments for support of dependents; and
- (3) Court ordered payments for restitution.

(b) Any balance remaining after the payments as set out in subsection (a) shall be credited to the prisoner's account and paid to him within 15 days of his release.

645W.

(a) (1) At any time during a period of confinement, and in accordance with programs available, the [Commissioner of the Baltimore City Jail] COMMISSIONER OF PRETRIAL DETENTION AND SERVICES may prescribe that [(i) a person sentenced to the Baltimore City Jail, or (ii)] a person detained in the [Baltimore City Jail] BALTIMORE CITY DETENTION CENTER if approved by the judge ordering the confinement, or if he is unable to act then any other judge of the committing court, may continue the person's regular employment, obtain new employment, participate in a training or rehabilitation or other special program, or attend educational institutions, during the period of custody.

(2) A prisoner in a prescribed program pursuant to this section shall be held in custody between program hours or periods. Within the discretion of the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee, a prisoner in a prescribed program may be held in custody through home detention by the use of electronic monitoring devices.

(3) The Commissioner may contract, subject to the [procedure for contracting by agencies of Baltimore City and the] availability of funds, for halfway houses or other suitable housing facilities or electronic monitoring devices for prisoners in a prescribed program.

[(b) After a sentenced prisoner enters a prescribed program, the judge ordering the confinement or, if that judge is unable to act, then any other judge of the committing court may order the release of the prisoner from custody based upon the recommendation of the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee and the report of the prisoner's performance in a program provided for in this section or in any other correctional program.

(c) (B) A prisoner employed under a work release plan shall surrender to the
