

Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee the total earnings, less payroll deductions required by law. The Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee shall deduct from these earnings after payroll deductions (net earnings) in the following order of priority: An amount for the cost to the [City and] State of providing food, lodging, electronic monitoring devices, and clothing for the prisoner (but not to exceed one third of net earnings); the actual and necessary food, travel, and other expenses of the prisoner when released from actual custody under the program; the amount which the prisoner may be legally obligated to pay for the support of his dependents by court order directed to the Commissioner, which amount shall be paid to the dependents as the order directs; and the amount ordered to be paid by the court as restitution. Any balance remaining after these deductions and payments shall be credited to the prisoner's account and shall be paid to the prisoner upon release. In those cases in which the prisoner's final earnings under a work release plan are required to satisfy the obligatory deductions set forth in this subsection, the balance of such earnings shall be forwarded to the prisoner within 15 days of the date of release from the [Jail] BALTIMORE CITY DETENTION CENTER.

645GG.

(a) (1) In this section the following terms have the meanings indicated.

(2) "Local detention center" means a jail, work release, or prerelease center, or any other correctional facility operated by 1 or more counties [or Baltimore City] for the purpose of adult detention and confinement.

(3) "Weekend prisoner" means a prisoner sentenced to a local detention center for nonconsecutive periods of 48 hours or less per week.

(b) The governing body of a county [or Baltimore City] may impose on and collect from a weekend prisoner a reasonable fee in an amount not to exceed the average cost of providing food, lodging, and clothing for a prisoner.

(c) (1) If the governing body of a county [or Baltimore City] decides to impose a fee under this section, the governing body shall adopt standard procedures to implement this section.

(2) Procedures adopted under this section shall include a provision for the waiver of a part or all of a fee imposed under this section based on the ability of a prisoner to pay the fee.
