

shall provide to the City information as to the amount of any sick leave used by the employees during their employment with the State from July 1, 1991 to December 31, 1991.

SECTION 8. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Baltimore City shall pay to the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services the cost of all annual leave provided by the State to any former officer and employee of the Baltimore City Jail under Section 5 of this Act by December 31, 1991.

SECTION 9. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the City of Baltimore and the State of Maryland shall establish a process to inform and advise employees of the Baltimore City Jail of their employment status and the terms and conditions of employment, if any, with the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services and to offer counseling as to the range of options available. Employees of the Baltimore City Jail who will not be employed on July 1, 1991 by the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services shall be given two weeks advanced notice by the Division that they will not be employed on July 1, 1991 by the State. This section shall not be construed to create any right of employment with the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services.

SECTION 10. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That all employees of the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services may present grievances as permitted under Article 64A, §§ 52 and 53 of the Annotated Code of Maryland. An employee may be represented by an attorney or other designated representative.

SECTION 11. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That upon written request from an employee of the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services, the Central Payroll Bureau of the Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury shall initiate a payroll deduction when an employee requests a voluntary deduction for an organization that has been approved for deductions.

SECTION 12. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act does not alter or terminate the State's obligation to Baltimore City, nor the City's obligation to the State, with respect to any contract for a capital project awarded prior to June 30, 1991, or local jail reimbursement expenses incurred prior to July 1, 1991, including any encumbered balances due.

SECTION 13. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That any fiscal year 1991 budget deficiency incurred by Baltimore City in the operation of the Baltimore City Jail is the sole financial responsibility of the City and is not an obligation of the State.

SECTION 14. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That before July 1, 1991, the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services shall submit to the Department of Budget and Fiscal Planning for approval a proposed budget for the Division of Pretrial Detention and Services that shows, in the form and detail specified by the Department of Budget and Fiscal Planning, the proposed number and class of positions and proposed apportionment and disbursement of all revenue sources. Except for amendments approved in accordance with § 7-209 of the State Finance and Procurement Article, expenditures and disbursements shall be made in accordance with the approved budget.

SECTION 15. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That notwithstanding any
