

113.

Any person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall maliciously injure or destroy any railroad locomotive, tender, car or carriage belonging to or in the use of any railroad company in this State, or being upon the track of any railroad company in this State, or who shall maliciously injure or destroy any kind of goods or chattels deposited or contained in such railroad car or carriage shall upon conviction thereof be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one or more than ten years.

114.

(a) In this section the word "freight" means chattels, goods, or containers.

(b) Any person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall be convicted of the crime of breaking into or entering by force or otherwise any railroad car, or freight secured or attached to any railroad car then being in the possession or use of any railroad company in this State with intent to steal any money, goods or chattels contained in that railroad car, or in any freight secured or attached to any railroad car shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years.

115.

Any person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall be convicted of the crime of breaking into or entering by force any railroad car then being in the possession or use of any railroad company in the State, or then being upon the tracks of any railroad company in this State, shall, in the discretion of the court, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years, or in the house of correction not exceeding three years, or in jail not exceeding one year.

126.

Every person convicted of wilfully or corruptly embezzling, stealing, withdrawing, impairing, razing or altering any will, testament, codicil, patent, deed, or assignment of a patent, writ, return, record, or parcel of the same, within this State, whereby the estate or right of any person shall or may be defeated, injured or in any way altered, shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than seven years.

127.

If any person to whom a will or codicil shall be delivered by the party making it for safe custody shall destroy the same without the direction of the said party, or wilfully secrete it for the space of six months after the death of the party shall be known to him, on conviction thereof the person so offending shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than fifteen years.

132.

If any executor, administrator, guardian, committee, trustee, receiver or any fiduciary shall fraudulently and wilfully appropriate to any use and purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, any money or any other thing of value which may come into his hands as such executor, administrator, guardian, committee, trustee, receiver, or
