

Fiscal Services not later than May 1, 1991. The Authority may not make an agreement with the Administration that eliminates construction of an addition to the west side of the warehouse unless the Baltimore Orioles enter into an agreement with the Authority whereby 1) the Orioles waive their right of first refusal for the use of the south end of the warehouse, and 2) agree to share equally with the Authority the costs of the exterior renovation to the south end of the warehouse. If the Authority and the Administration enter into a lease agreement, the financing of the renovations of the warehouse and construction of the addition may be through an arrangement with the Maryland Economic Development Corporation unless the Authority's debt limitation is increased to provide funding for renovation of the warehouse and construction of an addition.
