

(iii) The [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION may make payments to effectuate the provisions of this paragraph from funds specifically appropriated for this purpose as provided in the State budget or any supplemental budget request.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, if any student is a resident of this State and enrolls in an instructional program that the [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION designates as a health manpower shortage program or a statewide or regional program, the student shall pay only the student tuition and fees payable by a resident of a county that supports the community college and the [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION shall pay any applicable out-of-county fee.

(2) The [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION may make payments to effectuate the provisions of this section from funds specifically appropriated for this purpose as provided in the State budget or any supplemental budget request.

(e) (1) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, if any student resides in a county where the per capita wealth is below the State average and the county does not support a community college or a branch campus of a community college, except for Baltimore City, the student may enroll at a community college or a branch campus in the State, either of which is located in a county adjacent to the one in which the student resides, and pay only the tuition and fees applicable to a county resident that supports the community college.

(2) For any student determined to be eligible under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION shall pay:

(i) [In fiscal year 1990 and fiscal year 1991, any applicable out-of-county fee;

(ii)] In fiscal year 1992, 75% of any applicable out-of-county fee provided that the county in which the student resides pays 25 percent of that fee; and

(iii) In fiscal year 1993, and each fiscal year thereafter, 50% of any applicable out-of-county fee provided that the county in which the student resides pays 50 percent of that fee.

(3) The [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION may make payments to effectuate the provisions of this section from funds specifically appropriated for this purpose in the State budget or any supplemental budget request.

16-409.

(a) The [State Board for Community Colleges] COMMISSION shall adopt guidelines for financial record keeping and the preparation of annual audit reports by the community colleges. The community colleges shall comply with the guidelines of the [State Board] COMMISSION.
