

127.

If any person to whom a will or codicil shall be delivered by the party making it for safe custody shall destroy the same without the direction of the said party, or wilfully secrete it for the space of six months after the death of the party shall be known to him, on conviction thereof the person so offending shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than fifteen years.

132.

If any executor, administrator, guardian, committee, trustee, receiver or any fiduciary shall fraudulently and wilfully appropriate to any use and purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, any money or any other thing of value which may come into his hands as such executor, administrator, guardian, committee, trustee, receiver, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or secrete it with a fraudulent intent to appropriate it to such use or purpose, he shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement, and shall be punished upon conviction by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years.

139A.

(a) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, assemble, use or possess in this State, any device commonly known as a firebomb or a Molotov cocktail. Such a device is defined as any container which is filled with an incendiary mixture or flammable material or liquid, and is designed and intended to be used as a destructive device and whose ignition is caused by flame, friction, concussion, detonation or other method which will produce destructive effects primarily through combustion rather than explosion. This provision does not extend to those containers that contain and that are primarily designed and approved for the transportation or storage of a particular mixture, material or liquid.

(b) Violation of this section is a misdemeanor and is punishable upon conviction by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not to exceed 5 years, or by fine not to exceed $2,500 or both.

163.

If any person or persons shall on his or their own behalf, or shall for and on behalf of any other person or persons, or shall for or on behalf of any firm, copartnership or corporation, receive, accept or take in trust from any person, persons, firm, copartnership or corporation any warehouse receipt or elevator receipt, or bill of lading or any document giving or purporting to give title to or the right to possession of any goods, wares, merchandise or other personal property of any kind, under or subject to any written contract or agreement expressing the terms and condition of such trust; and if such person or persons so receiving any warehouse receipt or elevator receipt, bill of lading or any document giving or purporting to give title to or the right to possession of any goods, wares or merchandise or other personal property of any kind shall, in violation of good faith, fail, neglect or refuse to perform or fulfill the terms and conditions of such trust as expressed in such written contract or agreement, then and in every such case such person or persons so failing, neglecting or refusing to perform or fulfill the terms and conditions of such trust shall, on being convicted thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not more than ten years nor less than one year, or be fined not more than five thousand dollars nor less than five hundred dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.
