

Subsection (a) of this section is revised in the active voice since a court issues injunctive relief.

In subsection (a) of this section, the phrase "in a labor case" is added to state expressly the scope of this section.

In subsection (b)(2) of this section, the former phrase "against the order" is deleted as unnecessary since subsection (b)(1) of this section clearly encompasses those costs.

In subsection (c) of this section, the phrases "for the purpose of being liable on the bond" are substituted for the former phrases "upon which a decree may be rendered in the same suit or proceeding against said complainant and surety" and "for that purpose", for brevity and clarity.

In subsection (d) of this section, the reference to "an action ... in court" is substituted for the former reference to "suit at law or in equity", to reflect the elimination of distinctions between law and equity for purposes of pleadings. See Md. Rule 2-301.
