

However, by enactment of Ch. 311, Acts of 1987, the General Assembly reorganized the Department of Employment and Training as the Division of Employment and Training in the newly created Department of Economic and Employment Development. Chapter 311, Acts of 1987 contained 3 provisions on the administration of the unemployment insurance law. Article 83A, § 3-103 requires the Division of Employment and Training to administer the unemployment insurance law. Former Art. 95A, § 11(a)(1) required the Department of Economic and Employment Development to administer the unemployment insurance law under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development and the Board of Appeals of the Department of Economic and Employment Development, and former Art. 95A, § 12(a) required the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development to administer the unemployment insurance law. The General Assembly may wish to clarify whether the Department of Economic and Employment Development, the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development, or the Division of Employment and Training is responsible for administering this title.
