GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO TITLE :

Former Art. 95A, § 20(n-1), which defined "previously uncovered services" with respect to the 1-year period ending December 31, 1975, is deleted as unnecessary. The definition was needed only during the transition period after agricultural labor, domestic service, and employment for a governmental entity or an educational institution became subject to the unemployment insurance law. Accordingly, former Art. 95A, §§ 4(d)(2) and 8(c)(11), (d)(2)(vii) and the fourth sentence of the introductory language of § 8(d)(2), which described the treatment of "previously uncovered services" for determining benefits and charges to an employer's experience rating record, and § 9(b)(1), which allowed election for coverage of "previously uncovered services", also are deleted.

Former Art. 95A, § 23, which provided for additional benefits during specified periods, is deleted as obsolete. Subsection (f) of that section stated that "[a]n additional benefit period may not continue after June 9, 1984".

Former Art. 95A, § 26, which reserved the power to amend or repeal all or any part of that article and stated that all rights, powers and duties exist subject to the power to amend or repeal without regard to any private right of any kind, is deleted as unnecessary. The General Assembly is subject only to constitutional limitations and is not bound by past acts of the General Assembly. See, e.g., Nordheimer v. Montgomery Co., 307 Md. 85 (1986), State v. Fisher, 204 Md. 307 (1954), Thrift v. Flaird, 125 Md. 55 (1915), Wright v. Wright's Lessee, 2 Md. 429 (1852).

Former Art. 95A, § 27, which provided for the severability of the provisions of former Art. 95A, is deleted as unnecessary in light of Art. 1, § 23 of the Code.
