

In subsection (f) of this section, the former word "rules" is deleted in light of the word "regulations". See, SG § 10-101.

Defined terms: "Commission" § 9-101
 "Governmental unit" § 1-101

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO SUBTITLE :

Former Art. 101, § 14A, which made "workmen's compensation" and "workers' compensation" synonymous and required the Division of Statutory Revision to substitute the term "workers' " for the term "workmen's" during revision of former Art. 101, is deleted since this revision fulfills the requirement.

Former Art. 101, § 20, which preserved "existing" contracts and arrangements, is deleted as obsolete, since former § 20 was enacted by Ch. 800, Acts of 1914, to preserve agreements made under Ch. 139, Acts of 1902, Ch. 153, Acts of 1910, and Chs. 445 and 837, Acts of 1912.

Former Art. 101, § 67(1), (2), and (9), which purported to define "[e]mployment", "[e]mployer", and "State Accident Fund", respectively, is deleted as unnecessary, since those provisions merely provided cross-references to other, substantive provisions.

Former Art. 101, § 67(7), which defined the term "death", is deleted as unnecessary. Sections 9-501 and 9-502 of this title make it clear that the dependents of a deceased covered employee are not entitled to death benefits unless the covered employee died as a result of an accidental injury or an occupational disease. In addition, the phrase "when mentioned as a basis for the right to compensation" made the definition dependent on the context in which it appeared for its meaning, rendering it ineffective.

Former Art. 101, § 67(14), which defined "silicosis" and "asbestosis", is deleted as obsolete since Ch. 706, Acts of 1980, repealed the only provisions in which those terms appeared.

The Labor and Employment Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that Art. 41, § 4-701 of the Code sets up a procedure by which certain prisoners may receive benefits for a disability that results in the course of "extra-hazardous work" and specifically refers to the meaning of that term under "Article 101". The General Assembly may wish to consider the appropriate cross-reference, in light of the repeal of the definition of "extra-hazardous work" by Ch. 741, Acts of 1971.
