

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 101, § 21(b)(5).

The word "individual" is substituted for the former word "person", since this title covers only a human being. As to the definition of "person", see § 1-101 of this article.

Defined term: "Covered employee" § 9-101

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE :

Former Art. 101, § 26(c), which made former Art. 101 inapplicable to an occupational disease for which the last injurious exposure occurred before June 1, 1939, is transferred to the Session Laws.

Former Art. 101, § 61 is deleted. The first clause of former § 61, which made former Art. 101 inapplicable to an employer or any employee of the employer in instances when the employer is adjudicated as outside the scope of Art. 101, is an unnecessary statement of the obvious.

The second clause of former § 61, which applied to adjudication of an employee as outside the scope of former Art. 101 "because of remoteness of his work from the hazard of his employer's work", is obsolete. See the revisor's note to § 9-101(f) of this title.

The third clause of former § 61, which provided for accountings in cases under the first or second clause, is unnecessary in light of the deletion of those clauses.

SUBTITLE 3. STATE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION.

9-301. ESTABLISHED.

THERE IS A STATE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION ESTABLISHED AS AN INDEPENDENT UNIT OF THE STATE GOVERNMENT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 101, § 1(a), as that subsection related to creation of the Commission and from the reference, in former Art. 41, § 10-301, to the establishment of the Commission as an independent unit.

It is set forth as a separate section for emphasis.

The word "State" is added to conform to names of other units in the Executive Branch of the State government established under the revised articles.

The word "Workers' " is substituted for the former word "Workmen's" in accordance with former Art. 101, § 14A, which directed the Division of Statutory Revision of the Department of Legislative Reference to use "workers' " in the revision of former Art. 101.
