

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 101, § 13, except as it related to the duty of employers to have forms.

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the former duty to "prepare" is deleted as implicit in the broad word "provide".

The Labor and Employment Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that this section, consistent with former Art. 101, § 13, requires the Commission to provide forms only to employees. This requirement may be unnecessarily limited since the Commission requires that each document submitted to the Commission be on the form that the Commission requires. See COMAR 14.09.01.01. The General Assembly may wish to consider requiring the Commission to provide forms to employees as well as employers.
