

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to "others" entitled to benefits under the workers' compensation law as a result of the death is deleted as unnecessary and possibly misleading since only dependents are entitled to death benefits under this title.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the word "obligation" is deleted in light of the word "liability".

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the reference to "a claim" that comes under this section is added to clarify that it is a claim, rather than this section, that is subject to the continuing powers and jurisdiction of the Commission.

The third sentence of former Art. 101, § 33(d), as it provided for retroactive effect before July 1, 1980, is transferred to the Session Laws to preserve the right of any person who still may be affected by that provision.
