

(ii) Persons who are State residents over 64 years of age who have held a crab pot license under paragraph (1)(iv) of this subsection for at least the 3 consecutive years immediately before their application for a waiver to harvest crabs by using not more than 50 pots;

(iii) Persons who are State residents over 64 years of age to harvest oysters by handtong or handscrape in authorized areas;

(iv) Persons who are State residents over 64 years of age who have held a tidal fish license each year for at least 3 years before their 64th birthday to harvest finfish for commercial purposes using not more than 1 boat;

(v) Persons who are State residents under 14 or over 64 years of age for finfish and crab harvesting for personal consumption pursuant to §§ 4-709 and 4-804(c); and

(vi) Persons who are State residents over 64 years of age to harvest soft-shell clams or hard-shell clams with equipment that is lawful under Subtitle 10 of this title.

(5) (i) Except as provided in this paragraph, a person may not transfer or loan a license that is issued under paragraph (4) of this subsection.

(ii) If a licensee is unable to fish due to illness and the Natural Resources police approves a transfer of a license issued under paragraph (4) of this subsection, a licensee may transfer the license for not more than 10 days.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Body of bill being cured showed incorrect version of § 4-701(d) of the Natural Resources Article.

Occurred: Chapter 347 (House Bill 130) of the Acts of 1991.
10-424.

While engaged in hunting or pursuing any wildlife, a person may not:

- (1) Carelessly or negligently shoot, wound, or kill another person; or
- (2) Intentionally or willfully destroy or damage any real property, personal property, or farm livestock of another person.

10-1108.

(a) In addition to any other penalty, a court may suspend the hunting license of any person who is convicted of violating any provision of this title or any regulation adopted under this title, for a period not exceeding 5 years.

(b) If a person whose hunting license is suspended under this section passes another hunting safety course after the suspension has expired, the person may reapply for and be issued a hunting license.