

(2) ON THE NATURAL PARENT AT ANY OTHER ADDRESS FOR THE NATURAL PARENT IDENTIFIED AFTER REASONABLE GOOD FAITH EFFORTS TO LOCATE THE PARENT.

(b) (1) Except in an independent adoption, if the court is satisfied by affidavit or testimony that the petitioner, after reasonable efforts in good faith, cannot learn the identity or location of a natural parent, the court may waive the requirement of notice to the natural parent.

(2) In an independent adoption, if the court is satisfied by affidavit or testimony that the petitioner, after reasonable efforts in good faith, cannot learn the identity or location of a natural parent, the court may not waive the requirement of notice to the natural parent, but the court shall:

- (i) order notice by publication; or
- (ii) if the court finds the petitioner to be indigent, order notice by posting.

(3) IF THE CHILD HAS BEEN ADJUDICATED TO BE A CHILD IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE IN A PRIOR JUVENILE PROCEEDING, AND THE COURT IS SATISFIED BY AFFIDAVIT OR TESTIMONY THAT THE PETITIONER HAS MADE REASONABLE GOOD FAITH EFFORTS TO SERVE BY BOTH CERTIFIED MAIL AND PRIVATE PROCESS ONE SHOW CAUSE ORDER ON THE PARENT AT ALL ADDRESSES SPECIFIED IN SUBSECTION (B) OF THIS SECTION, BUT WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL, THE COURT SHALL WAIVE THE REQUIREMENT OF NOTICE TO THE NATURAL PARENT.

(c) If a person is notified under this section and fails to file notice of objection within the time stated in the show cause order or if a person's notification has been waived under paragraph [(b)] (C) of this section:

- (1) the court shall consider the person who is notified or whose notice is waived to have consented to the adoption or to the guardianship; and
- (2) the petition shall be treated in the same manner as a petition to which consent has been given.
