

Article 9 – Public Local Laws of Maryland
(1988 Edition and October, 1991 Supplement, as amended)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 9 – Charles County

8-1.

The County Commissioners shall give public notice prior to taking any action which may result in the sale of bonds. This notice shall be by advertisement in [one (1)] 1 or more newspapers published or of general circulation in the county [] and shall be printed at least once { a week for three (3) consecutive weeks}. The notice shall state that [in not less than three (3) weeks in the future,] the Board will meet in public hearing NOT LESS THAN 7 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF PUBLICATION OF THE NOTICE to permit any resident of the county to appear and testify concerning the proposed issuance of the bonds. The notice shall also state the time and place of the meeting.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1992.

Approved May 5, 1992.

CHAPTER 131

(House Bill 219)

AN ACT concerning

Pensions and Retirement

FOR the purpose of revising, reorganizing, and clarifying the laws of the State pertaining to retirement and pension systems of the State and certain political subdivisions of the State; repealing certain obsolete provisions of law; clarifying that the Maryland State Retirement and Pension Systems, consisting of the several systems under the management of the Board of Trustees, has the powers and privileges of a corporation and is to provide retirement allowances and other benefits as provided under State law; clarifying certain provisions of law concerning the membership, powers, and duties of the Board of Trustees; clarifying certain provisions concerning members' contributions to the several systems; providing for the interest rate to be paid on members' contributions to certain of the several systems; clarifying the kinds of service that qualify as creditable service or eligibility service for each of the several systems; clarifying certain provisions of law concerning membership, disability retirement, death benefits, vested allowances, and cost-of-living adjustments under certain of the several systems; clarifying the provisions of law concerning membership, eligibility or creditable service, and benefits that apply to
