(a) Unless a contrary intent is expressly indicated in the will, a claim which was barred by a statute of limitations at the time of the death of the decedent may not be allowed or paid.

(b) Subject to § 8-103(a) OF THIS SUBTITLE, a period of limitations which would terminate, except for the death of the decedent, during the period from the death of the decedent until [nine] 6 months after the date of the decedent's death, is automatically extended until [nine] 6 months after the date of the decedent's death.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute with respect to claims of the United States and the State, all claims against an estate of a decedent, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, founded on contract, tort, or other legal basis, are forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, and the heirs and legatees, unless presented within the earlier of the following dates:

(1) [Nine] 6 months after the date of the decedent's death; or

(2) Two months after the personal representative mails or otherwise delivers to the creditor a copy of a notice in the form required by § 7-103 OF THIS ARTICLE or other written notice, notifying the creditor that his claim will be barred unless he presents the claim within 2 months from the mailing or other delivery of the notice.

(a) Upon the expiration of [nine] 6 months from the date of the decedent's death, the personal representative shall pay the claims allowed against the estate in the order of priority prescribed in § 8-105 OF THIS SUBTITLE. The court may extend the time for payment for good cause shown. A person with a valid unbarred claim or with a valid unbarred judgment who has not been paid may petition the court for an order directing the personal representative to pay the claim to the extent that funds of the estate are available for payment.
