

- (i) Of the appointment of the panels;
 - (ii) That the records of the panels are open to public input and review;
- and
- (iii) Of the dates and location of the panels' meetings and hearings;

(4) On or before November 10, transmit each panel report to the Governor and the Legislative Policy Committee to allow time for consideration of the panel's report and actions at the ensuing session of the General Assembly;

(5) Transmit the panels' reports to any State agency that is identified as being affected by the legislative proposal or statute under review; ~~{and}~~

(6) Administer the business of the Committee and the panels; ~~AND~~

~~(7) ENSURE THAT ALL ASPECTS OF THE EVALUATION PROCESS COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION.~~

(f) (1) (i) The panel shall consist of objective expert personnel selected from among persons who are skilled in health research, economics, statistics, or actuarial science, and may include health care providers or practitioners.

(ii) The panels shall consist of:

1. Existing legislative, executive, or State institutional staff and an outside expert or experts; or
2. Outside experts.

(2) The panel shall:

(i) Collect and analyze data and information concerning the subject assigned to it for review;

(ii) Conduct an evaluation of the statute or legislative proposal assigned to it for review, including the social and fiscal costs and benefits; and

(iii) Based on data submitted:

1. Report on whether sufficient data exists to make an evaluation;
2. Recommend the reporting and collection of statistics and data needed to evaluate the mandated health insurance benefit, nondiscrimination provision, and beneficiary or length of coverage provisions;
3. Analyze possible modifications to existing or proposed mandated health insurance benefits, nondiscrimination provisions, and beneficiary or length of coverage provisions;
4. Evaluate the desirability of a termination date where appropriate;