

(c) The petition for revocation or modification of a conditional release shall contain:

(1) A statement that the committed individual has violated a term of a conditional release and that there is therefore reason to believe that the committed individual no longer meets the criteria for eligibility for conditional release;

(2) A statement of the conditions violated;

(3) The factual basis for the statements in items (1) and (2) of this subsection;

(4) The most recent evaluation report on the committed individual; and

(5) The Department's designation of the facility to receive the returned committed individual.

(d) If the court's review of the petition determines that there is no probable cause to believe that the committed individual has violated a conditional release, the court shall:

(1) Note the determination on the petition and file it in the court file on the committed individual; and

(2) Notify the State's Attorney, the Department, and the person who reported the violation.

(e) If the court's review of the petition determines that there is probable cause to believe that the committed individual has violated a conditional release, the court promptly shall:

(1) Issue a [body attachment] HOSPITAL WARRANT for the committed individual and direct that on [attachment] EXECUTION the committed individual shall be transported to the facility designated by the Department; and

(2) Send a copy of the [order for body attachment] HOSPITAL WARRANT and the petition to:

(i) The State's Attorney;

(ii) The Public Defender;

(iii) The counsel of record for the committed individual;

(iv) The person who reported the violation;

(v) A hearing officer of the Department; and

(vi) The Department.

(f) Within 10 days after the committed individual is returned to the Department in accordance with the [body attachment] HOSPITAL WARRANT, a hearing officer of the Department shall hold a hearing unless:

(1) The hearing is postponed or waived by agreement of the parties; or
