(2) The further investigation shall be completed and a decision made by the intake officer within 10 days, unless that time is extended by the court.

(f) (1) The intake officer may propose an informal adjustment of the matter if based on the complaint, the preliminary inquiry, and such further investigation as may be necessary, the intake officer concludes that the court has jurisdiction but that an informal adjustment, rather than judicial action, is in the best interests of the public and the child.

(2) The intake officer shall propose an informal adjustment by informing the victim, the child, and the child's parent or guardian of the nature of the complaint, the objectives of the adjustment process, the conditions and procedures under which it will be conducted, and the fact that it is not obligatory.

(3) The intake officer shall not proceed with an informal adjustment unless the victim, the child, and the child's parent or guardian consent to the informal adjustment procedure.

(g) (1) During the informal adjustment process, the child shall be subject to such supervision as the intake officer deems appropriate; however, no person is compelled to appear at any conference, produce any paper, or visit any place.

(2) The informal adjustment process shall not exceed 90 days unless that time is extended by the court.

(4) If at any time before the completion of an agreed upon informal adjustment the intake officer believes that the informal adjustment cannot be completed successfully, the intake officer shall authorize the filing of a petition or deny authorization to file a petition under subsection (h) of this section.
