

The first clause of the first sentence of former Art. 89, § 70(f), which provided that regulations are effective as provided in SG § 10-117, is deleted as unnecessary in light of SG § 10-117.

The second clause of the first sentence of former Art. 89, § 70(f), which provided that regulations have the "force and effect of law", is deleted as surplusage. A regulation adopted under statutory authority has the force and effect of law. Staley v. Board of Education, 308 Md. 42 (1986); Maryland Port Administration v. John W. Brawner Contracting Co., 303 Md. 44 (1985).

As to the substitution of the word "regulation" for the former reference to "rules, regulations and standards", see the General Revisor's Note to this subtitle.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 89, § 70(e).

In subsection (a)(2) of this section, the former words "on file" are deleted as surplusage.

Also in subsection (a)(2) of this section, the former reference to keeping regulations "as a public record" is deleted as unnecessary since a regulation is a "public record" under SG § 10-611(f) and is open to public inspection under Title 10, Subtitle 6, Part III of the State Government Article.

In subsection (b) of this section, the words "set a fee" are substituted for the former words "fix a price" for clarity.
