

members of the Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation shall be chairman as of July 1, 1970, and thereafter the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, shall name one of the regular members as chairman from time to time.

(b) The appointments to the Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation shall be without regard to political affiliation. Members of the Advisory Board shall be interested, and preferably experienced, in one or more of the fields of penology, corrections, parole and probation, law and social welfare. They shall be persons of ability and understanding, and of respected position in their several respective communities. All of them shall be residents of this State. Members of the Advisory Board shall receive no compensation for their services, but they may be reimbursed for necessary and proper expenses incurred in their duties as such, in accordance with Standard Travel Regulations.

(c) The Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation shall meet at least bimonthly, at a time and place designated by it or its chairman. In addition, the Advisory Board shall meet at such other times as requested by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services.

(d) The Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation shall study and observe procedures in and the development and progress of the correction, parole and probation systems of this State. The Board shall make suggestions and give advice with respect to the State's correction, parole and probation systems to the Secretary, the Commissioner of Correction, the Board of Parole, and the Director of Parole and Probation.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1992.

Approved April 7, 1992.

CHAPTER 13

(Senate Bill 127)

AN ACT concerning

Juvenile Facilities – Crimes and Punishments – Escapes from Confinement

FOR the purpose of ~~clarifying~~ establishing that certain privately operated facilities ~~treating delinquent children~~ for delinquent or detained youth are considered places of confinement for certain purposes; ~~altering the definition of places of confinement~~; clarifying that certain regulatory authority applies only to certain facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Services; making this Act an emergency measure; and generally relating to juvenile facilities that are used as places of confinement for juveniles.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,