(b) The Secretary of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES shall also have attached to [his] THE SECRETARY'S office such assistants, professional [consultants] CONSULTANTS, and employees as are provided for in the State budget. [He] THE SECRETARY may establish areas of responsibility within [his] THE SECRETARY'S office and designate assistants to be in charge of such areas. All staff assistants in the Secretary's office in charge of particular areas of responsibility, and all professional consultants shall serve at the pleasure of the Secretary. All other employees of the Secretary's office, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be appointed and removed by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of Article 64A of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

(c) The appointment or removal of personnel by an administration, board, commission, division, or other agency within the jurisdiction of the Department of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary; however the Secretary is authorized to delegate this power of approval to the heads or governing bodies of the boards, commissions, divisions or other agencies within the jurisdiction of the Department of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES.

(d) The Attorney General shall be the legal advisor to the Department of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES. [He] THE SECRETARY shall assign to the Department such number of assistant attorneys general as are now authorized by law to be assigned to the various departments, agencies, boards, commissions, councils, or units which are herein, or may hereafter by law be deemed to be part of the Department of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES; and [he] THE SECRETARY shall also assign to the Department such additional number of assistant attorneys general as may hereafter be authorized by law for such
