

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Stylistic errors in § 7-265(d)(2) of the Environment Article.

Occurred: Ch. 154, Acts of 1991. Correction by the Michie Company in the 1991 Cumulative Supplement to the 1987 Replacement Volume of the Environment Article is validated by this Act.

8-501.

(a) In accordance with § 10-405 of the State Government Article and after notice and hearing, the Department may suspend, modify, or revoke any general or specific license issued under § 8-301 of this title or any license issued under § 8-304 of this title for violation of this [subtitle] TITLE or any [rule or] regulation adopted under this title.

8-502.

(a) The Department shall issue a written complaint if the Department has reasonable grounds to believe that the person to whom the complaint is directed has violated:

- (1) This [subtitle] TITLE;
- (2) Any [rule or] regulation adopted under this [subtitle] TITLE;
- (3) Any lawful order issued by the Department under this [subtitle] TITLE; or

(4) Any applicable provision of any general or specific license or x-ray machine inspector license issued by the Department under this [subtitle] TITLE.

8-506.

(b) (2) After the time within which the Department may not issue a corrective order has passed, if the Department finds that a violation of this [subtitle] TITLE has occurred, the Department shall issue an order that requires correction of the violation within a time set in the order.

8-507.

(a) The Department may bring an action for an injunction against any person who violates any provision of this [subtitle] TITLE or any [rule,] regulation, order, or permit adopted or issued by the Department under this subtitle.

(b) On a showing that any person is violating or is about to violate this [subtitle] TITLE or any [rule,] regulation, order, or license adopted or issued by the Department, the court shall grant an injunction without requiring a showing of a lack of an adequate remedy at law.
