

(2) The 14 days' requirement may be waived if a subsequent learner's INSTRUCTIONAL permit is issued or applied for.

(e) A learner's INSTRUCTIONAL permit expires 180 days after date of issuance.

(f) (1) The Administration may issue a driver's license, without first issuing a learner's INSTRUCTIONAL permit and without a waiting period, to any individual who has been licensed regularly to drive in this State, in another state or country, or by the armed forces of the United States, if the Administration is satisfied that the applicant's experience in driving vehicles of the type that would be authorized by the license class applied for is sufficient to justify issuance of the license without further training.

(2) The Administration may examine the applicant's driving as provided in § 16-110 of this title.

(g) An individual holding a learner's INSTRUCTIONAL permit issued under this section may not drive or attempt to drive a motor vehicle on any highway in this State in violation of any of the provisions of this section.
