

(3) Any name reserved under § 2-107, § 4A-209, § 9-804, or § 10-103 of this article, registered under this section, § 4A-1002, or § 10-904 of this article, or recorded under § 1-406 of this article.

(b) To register its name, the corporation shall file with the Department:

(1) An application for registration, executed for and verified by an officer of the corporation, which sets forth:

- (i) The name of the corporation;
- (ii) The place where it is organized;
- (iii) The date of its organization;
- (iv) A statement that it is carrying on business; and
- (v) A brief description of the business in which it is engaged; and

(2) A certificate which:

(i) States that the corporation is in good standing under the laws of the place where it is organized; and

(ii) Is executed by the official of that place who has custody of the pertinent records.

(c) A registration is effective until the end of the calendar year in which the application for registration is filed.

(d) (1) A corporation which registers its name may renew the registration annually by filing:

(i) An application for renewal; and

(ii) A certificate of good standing as required for the original registration.

(2) A renewal application may be filed between October 1 and December 31 of each year.

(3) A renewal application extends the registration for the following calendar year.]

7-203.

(c) Unless terminated by the corporation, the qualification is effective as long as:

(1) The corporation has a resident agent in this State;

(2) The corporation does not forfeit its right to do intrastate business under the laws of this State; and