16-111.1.

(a) (1) When an applicant applies for an initial driver's license or for a class of driver's license other than that which the applicant currently holds, the applicant shall pay the Administration a license fee established by the Administration. This fee covers issuance of a learner's instructional permit and, if the applicant qualifies before the learner's instructional permit expires, issuance of a driver's license.

(2) If a learner's instructional permit is not required, the applicant shall pay the Administration, when the driver's license is issued, a license fee established by the Administration.

(b) For the renewal of a noncommercial Class A, B, C, D, E, or M driver's license, a licensee shall pay the Administration a renewal fee established by the Administration.

(c) For issuance of a duplicate or corrected noncommercial Class A, B, C, D, E, or M driver's license, a licensee shall pay the Administration a duplicate or corrected driver's license fee established by the Administration.

(d) For conversion of a provisional license to a driver's license issued under § 16-111 of this subtitle, a licensee shall pay the Administration a fee established by the Administration.

(e) A licensee shall pay a fee established by the Administration if:

(1) The license is issued or renewed under § 16-104.1 of this subtitle;
and
