

Annotated Code of Maryland
(1997 Replacement Volume and 1997 Supplement)

Preamble

WHEREAS, One of the highest priorities of Governor Parris N. Glendening and the Maryland General Assembly has been to restore stability and predictability to higher education funding to ensure the enhancement of quality and the achievement of national preeminence for Maryland's colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, To accomplish these priorities, the Governor has proposed an unprecedented funding initiative that will help institutions limit tuition increases, recruit and retain excellent faculty, provide increased student financial aid to make college more affordable, accommodate enrollment growth, meet the rising costs of technology, and keep Maryland's colleges and universities competitive in teaching and research; and

WHEREAS, This Act reflects the funding goals of the Governor and General Assembly and helps position Maryland's colleges and universities effectively to address the educational, economic, and quality of life needs of the State and its citizens in the 21st century; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:
