

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

DEVELOPMENT AND TOURISM DEVELOPMENT AND CREATING A NEW CHAPTER 22 FOR TOURISM DEVELOPMENT.

[Effective Date February 4, 1997]

Emergency Bill No. 3-97

AN ACT TO ADD NEW PROVISION 26 TO SECTION 1.3 "CONDITIONAL USES" TO SECTION 1, AGRICULTURAL ZONING DISTRICT, ARTICLE V, DISTRICT REGULATIONS, AND NEW PROVISION 53 TO SECTION 3, ARTICLE VII, "CONDITIONAL USES" PERMITTING MORE THAN FOUR HORSES AND MULES, WHETHER FOR PUBLIC OR PRIVATE USE TO BE STABLED ON LANDS LESS THAN 20 ACRES.

[Effective Date May 6, 1997]

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

Ordinance No. 96-13

AN ACT CONCERNING amendments to the 1994 Queen Anne's County Zoning Ordinance and Subdivision Regulations.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF regulating waste disposal facilities and similar industrial uses, including extraction and disposal operations; differentiating between major and minor conditional uses and providing additional standards for certain specified conditional uses; and dealing generally with the regulation of the use of land in Queen Anne's County for waste disposal as defined.

[Various sections of the 1994 Zoning Ordinance and Subdivision Regulations (Revised as Title 18, Subtitle 1 of the Public Local Laws of Queen Anne's County, 1996 Edition) - Amended

Effective Date February 21, 1997]

Ordinance No. 97-1

AN ACT CONCERNING adoption of a new edition of the Public Local Laws of Queen Anne's County and the repeal of the 1983 Edition and 1986 Supplement, as amended, and any county ordinance incorporated into the new edition which is legalized by this Act.

FOR the purpose of legalizing the Public Local Laws of Queen County, 1996 Edition, being Article 18 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, and any supplement thereto, published under the direction of the County Commissioners; repealing former law incorporated into the 1996 Edition; providing for the effect of the 1996 Edition; providing that this bill is an emergency measure; providing for the application of this bill; and generally relating to legalization of the Public Local Laws of Queen Anne's County.