

- it is collected;
- (i) shall be appropriate and relevant to the purposes for which it is collected;
 - (ii) shall be accurate and current to the greatest extent practicable; and
 - (iii) may not be obtained by fraudulent means.

(c) (1) This subsection only applies to units of State government.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by law, an official custodian who keeps personal records shall, to the greatest extent practicable, collect personal information from the person in interest.

(3) An official custodian who requests personal information for personal records shall provide the following information to each person in interest from whom personal information is collected:

- (i) the purpose for which the personal information is collected;
- (ii) any specific consequences to the person for refusal to provide the personal information;
- (iii) the person's right to inspect, amend, or correct personal records, if any;
- (iv) whether the personal information is generally available for public inspection; and
- (v) whether the personal information is made available or transferred to or shared with any entity other than the official custodian.

(4) Each unit of State government shall post its privacy policies with regard to the collection of personal information, including the policies specified in this subsection, on its Internet website.

(5) The following personal records shall be exempt from the requirements of this subsection:

- (i) information pertaining to the enforcement of criminal laws or the administration of the penal system;
- (ii) information contained in investigative materials kept for the purpose of investigating a specific violation of State law and maintained by a State agency whose principal function may be other than law enforcement;
