

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, today I have vetoed House Bill 472 – State Retirement and Pension System – Imposition of Administrative Fees on Employers.

This bill authorizes the Board of Trustees of the State Retirement and Pension System to adopt regulations to impose administrative fees on participating employers that fail to provide information to the State Retirement Agency with regard to the enrollment of eligible employees in the State Retirement and Pension System.

Senate Bill 375, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 472.

Sincerely,

Governor

House Bill 472

AN ACT concerning

State Retirement and Pension System – Imposition of Administrative Fees on Employers

FOR the purpose of authorizing the Board of Trustees of the State Retirement and Pension System to adopt regulations to impose certain fees on certain participating employers that fail to provide certain information to the State Retirement Agency with regard to the enrollment of eligible employees in the State Retirement and Pension System; and generally relating to the imposition of administrative fees on employers participating in the State Retirement and Pension System.
