

(2) (i) Except as provided in [items] SUBPARAGRAPHS (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph, any competent individual may serve as a witness to an advance directive, including an employee of a health care facility or physician caring for the declarant if acting in good faith.

(ii) The health care agent of the declarant may not serve as a witness.

(iii) At least one of the witnesses must be an individual who is not knowingly entitled to any portion of the estate of the declarant or knowingly entitled to any financial benefit by reason of the death of the declarant.

(d) (1) Any competent individual may make an oral advance directive to authorize the providing, withholding, or withdrawing of any life-sustaining procedure or to appoint an agent to make health care decisions for the individual.

(2) An oral advance directive shall have the same effect as a written OR ELECTRONIC advance directive if made in the presence of the attending physician and one witness and if the substance of the oral advance directive is documented as part of the individual's medical record. The documentation shall be dated and signed by the attending physician and the witness.

(f) (2) An attending physician who is notified of the existence of the advance directive shall promptly:

(i) If the advance directive is written OR ELECTRONIC, make the advance directive or a copy of the advance directive a part of the declarant's medical records; or

(ii) If the advance directive is oral, make the substance of the advance directive, including the date the advance directive was made and the name of the attending physician, a part of the declarant's medical records.

5-604.

(a) An advance directive may be revoked at any time by a declarant by a signed and dated [writing] WRITTEN OR ELECTRONIC DOCUMENT, by physical cancellation or destruction, by an oral statement to a health care practitioner or by the execution of a subsequent directive.

(b) If a declarant revokes an advance directive by an oral statement to a health care practitioner, the practitioner and a witness to the oral revocation shall document the substance of the oral revocation in the declarant's medical record.
