

two red steers, one red Heifer, one Brindle & Heifer, one spotted calf, one Bay Mare, five bags, one wagon, all my crop of wheat growing, one Barshear plough, one double shovel plough, two single shovel ploughs, one cultivator, one harrow, one Sassafras distillery and apparatus, and all my crop of Tobacco growing, all which property is now in the use and occupancy of me the said Charles Pickett, I have and hold, each and every of the above mentioned and described goods and chattels unto the said Benjamin Dodd, his heirs and assigns, to the only proper use and benefit of him the said Benjamin Dodd, his heirs and assigns forever, and I the said Charles Pickett, for myself, my heirs, executors and administrators, do hereby covenant, promise and agree, to and with the said Benjamin Dodd, his heirs and assigns, that I the said Charles Pickett, shall and will hereafter, warrant and forever defend, unto the said Benjamin Dodd his heirs and assigns, all and singular, each and every, of the aforementioned goods and chattels, all of which I now place and put into the possession of the said Benjamin Dodd, by the delivery of one Bay Mare, in the name of the whole; and I hereby further agree, promise and oblige myself, my heirs, executors and administrators, that whenever the said Benjamin Dodd shall require and demand a removal of the said property, that it shall and may be lawful & proper for him to take, carry away and use the same, or any part thereof, without any let molestation or hindrance by me, or by any person claiming, from, under or in trust for me or my heirs. In testimony whereof, I have hereto set my hand and seal, this twentieth day of June eighteen hundred and fifty five, signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of

Charles Pickett
his mark