On motion by Mr. Speed, the following message was read:

By the House of Delegates, Jan. 24, 1826.

Gentlemen of the Senate.

To the nomination already made by this house for a member to the United States senate, we beg leave to add the name of Philip Reid, esquire, as a candidate, who will be supported by this house for that office.

On motion by Mr. Howard, the message was amended by striking out all after the word candidate.

The message was then assented to, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

By the Senate, Jan. 24, 1826.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate concur in your proposition to go into the election of United States' senator to-day at 12 o'clock; no additional nomination has
