

Tuesday, January 17, 1826.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Welch. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The supplement to an act to extend the jurisdiction of justices of the peace of this state, and the bill authorising the mayor and city council of Baltimore to appoint wood-corders for said city, were sent to the senate.

Mr. Duvall presents a petition from Barbara Reiley, praying for the continuance of a pension heretofore given to her husband; referred to the standing committee.

Also a petition from William and Rachel Russell, Mr. Kilgour presents a petition from Hannah Silcock. Mr. Boon presents a petition from Ann Crouch, for support; referred to the committee on that subject.

Mr. Rogerson presents a petition from Robert Crain, praying the levy court of Charles county may be authorised to levy thirty dollars for him on said county; referred to Messrs. Rogerson, Edelen and Chapman.

Mr. Kennedy presents a petition from William Lewis, an old soldier; referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Tyson presents a petition from sundry persons, members of the Mutual Insurance Company of Baltimore, praying that the number of their directors may be increased by law; referred to Messrs. Tyson, Howard and M'Culloh.

Mr. Beckett presents a petition from sundry inhabitants of Calvert county, praying a repeal or modification of the act of December session 1824, ch. 171; referred to the committee on the same subject.

Mr. Hall presents a petition from Samuel Bradford, late sheriff of Harford county, praying to be released from the payment of interest on a debt due to the state; referred to Messrs. Hall, Montgomery and Williams.

Mr. Howard presents a petition from sundry citizens of Baltimore, praying for the establishment of another medical school; referred to Messrs. Howard, Tyson, Worthington, M'Culloh and Williams.

Mr. Potter, chairman of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, delivers the following reports:

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of John Blake, of Worcester county, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to John Blake, of Worcester county, or to his order, during life, in quarterly annual payments, the half pay of a private, as a further remuneration for his services during the revolutionary war.

By order, Wm. H. Emory, Clk.

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the petition of Conrad Croffroth, of Franklin county, in the state of Pennsylvania, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Conrad Croffroth, of Franklin county, in the state of Pennsylvania, or to his order, during life, in quarterly annual payments, the half pay of a fifer, as a further remuneration for his services during the revolutionary war.

By order, Wm. H. Emory, Clk.