

adjudged, and in all respects hold the said Howard M. Duvall in all respects hold the said Howard M. Duvall harmless from all costs in the premises, then and in that case these presents shall be void, else to remain in full force and effect. Witness my hand and seal this seventeenth day of January 1849.

Witness J. M. Hunter.

Wesley A. Stockett

Anne Arundel County sh. on this seventeenth day of January 1849 before the subscriber a Justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for the County aforesaid personally appears Wesley A. Stockett, the within named grantor and acknowledged the foregoing instrument to be his act and deed. J. M. Hunter.

Received Annapolis January 17th 1849, one dollar for stamp duty on this instrument.

Jos. N. Nicholson Clk.

Recorded on the 17th day of January 1849.

Charles F. Worthington to Bruce A. Worthington

This Indenture made this twenty second day of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty nine between Charles F. Worthington of Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland of the one part and Bruce A. Worthington of the same County and State of the other part. Whereas by a judgment entered at the October Term of Anne Arundel County Court eighteen hundred and forty eight by the parties aforesaid together with one Nicholas B. Worthington in favor of Franklin Sullivan & Patrick H. Sullivan surviving partners of John Sullivan for the sum of twelve hundred and forty nine dollars and sixty three cents with interest from the seventeenth day of October eighteen hundred and forty eight: the said Bruce A. Worthington appears jointly bound with the other defendants, when in fact he is a mere security and the said Charles F. Worthington is the principal debtor. and whereas by a promissory note drawn by the said Bruce A. Worthington for one thousand and fifty dollars at ninety days on the twenty first day of October eighteen hundred and forty eight, endorsed by Nicholas B. Worthington and the said Charles F. Worthington and discounted by the Farmers Bank of Maryland: the said Bruce A. Worthington is liable for the whole amount of said note, when in fact the same was drawn and discounted for the accommodation and use of the said Charles F. Worthington to the amount of one half of said note. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of the premises and for the purpose of securing and saving harmless the said Bruce A. Worthington from all risks, charges, execution and costs by reason of his joint liability as before mentioned in the judgment aforesaid and of his liability on account of the note as aforesaid, and also in consideration of the further sum of five dollars current money to him the said Charles F. Worthington by the said Bruce A. Worthington in hand well and truly paid at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the said Charles F. Worthington, has granted, bargained and sold and by these presents does grant, bargain and sell unto the said Bruce A. Worthington his executor, administrators and assigns the following negro slaves namely: one man named Tom