

Charles F. Worthington his executors or administrators do and shall well and truly pay the said sum of three hundred and forty six dollars and thirty two cents, with the interest due thereon, the sum of money mentioned in the said note endorsed by the said Brice & as aforesaid, and fully and entirely discharge the said Brice & from all liability, risk, and costs at the time the same is payable according to the tenor and terms of said note, and provided further that if the said Charles F. Worthington shall secure the said Brice & Worthington, his executors, administrators or assigns, or the creditors of the said Brice &, contemplated in the said deed above mentioned from all risk, charge, costs, loss and liability for and on account of the endorsement above mentioned, and for and on account of the joint liability of the said Charles F. and the said Brice &, in behalf of the debts of the said Charles, or of the said Nicholas B. Worthington over and above the just share and extent of liability as above particularly mentioned, then and in such case these presents and every matter and thing therein contained, shall cease, determine and be utterly void to all intents and purposes whatsoever, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding - In Testimony whereof the said Charles F. Worthington hath hereunto set his hand and seal this day and year first above written.

Chas. F. Worthington

In presence of the words "and also in consideration of one dollar in hand paid by the said Brice & B. Worthington to the said Charles at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents," having been first interlined between the ninth and tenth lines of the fourth page of first sheet.

Owen M. Taylor

State of Maryland, Anne Arundel County Court: Be it remembered and it is hereby certified that on this twentieth day of March eighteen hundred and forty nine before me the subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for Anne Arundel County aforesaid, personally appeared Charles F. Worthington he being known to me to be the person who is named and described as, professing to be the party grantor in the foregoing Indenture and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed. In Testimony whereof I hereunto subscribe my name and on the day and year aforesaid.

Owen M. Taylor

On this twentieth day of March eighteen hundred and forty nine before me the subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland and Anne Arundel County personally appears Brice & B. Worthington, he being known to me to be the party named as mortgagee in the within Mortgage deed and makes oath that the consideration as therein ~~stated~~ mentioned and set forth is true and bona fide.

Sworn before Owen M. Taylor.

Received, March 20th 1849, three dollars and fifty cents for stamp duty on this instrument.

J. H. Nicholson Clk

Recorded on the 20th day of March 1849.