Know all men by these presents that ^{Ann} Lane of Anne Arundel county in the State of Maryland made her last Will and testament in writing bearing date the thirtieth day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, which will was duly proved and recorded in the Register of Wills office for Anne Arundel county and among other negroes did devise a negro woman by the name of Jenny aged about forty five years to be free, with power to her sister Susanna Lane, John Warring and John Sprigg Warwood or either of them to liberate and set free the said negro woman named Jenny, (Therefore in pursuance of the power vested to me under the Will of Ann Lane, I do here by liberate manumit and set free from slavery the said negro named Jenny) being of the age of forty five years or thereabouts and able to work and again a sufficient livelihood and maintenance, and her the said negro Jenny I do declare to be henceforth liberated, manumitted and freed from
