2/4. Recorded the 8th day of July 1815.

Whereas I John Chew Thomas of New Brunswick County and State of Maryland on the twelfth day of February eighteen hundred and twelve did by deeds of manumission executed and recorded in the Clerk's office of the aforesaid County according to law, grant freedom to several female slaves therein mentioned at the several and respective periods of time therein specified, and did further declare the condition of the children who should be born of the said females before the time fixed for their emancipation to be, as follows the males to be free as they should arrive to the age of twenty one years and the females as they should arrive to the age of eighteen years as by the said deeds of manumission well fully appear. Now be it known that I do hereby set free manumit and grant freedom to all and every female that has been or may be born of any slave manumitted by me before the time specified for the freedom of the mother in the following manner that is to say, I grant freedom to each and every such female when she may arrive to the age limited by law or custom of white females children to be free who are bound to service, which age is at present the age of sixteen years. And I do further declare and make
