

Shaw and James Murray against a certain responsibility in said deed mentioned, and whereas the said Henry & Holland, James Shaw and James Murray have agreed to sell the said negro to Henry Maymuden Esquire of the City of Annapolis, until they respectively arrive at the age of thirty five years, the said Paul being now of the age of twenty two years, and the said Aaron of the age of twenty four years, for the sum of five hundred dollars, and that the said negroes shall be free and manumitted after the said term, Now therefore this deed doth witness to all whom it may concern, that we James Shaw, James Murray and Henry & Holland for divers good causes and considerations to them moving, as also in further consideration of the sum of five dollars current money, to us in hand paid, have released from slavery, liberated, manumitted and set free the said negro man named Aaron from and after the seventeenth day of May eighteen hundred and forty, and the said negro man named Paul from and after the seventh day of June eighteen hundred and forty two, being now respectively of the ages of twenty four and twenty two years and able to work and gain a sufficient livelihood and maintenance, and that the said Aaron and Paul we do declare after the periods above named, to be free, manumitted and discharged from all manner of service or servitude to us or either of us, our or either of our heirs executors and administrators forever In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this fourteenth day of July eighteen hundred and twenty nine.

Signed sealed & delivered in presence of James Hunter.
