

Deed of Manumission from Thomas J. Meyick
to

Sundry Negroes

To all whom it may concern, be it known, that I, Thomas J. Meyick of Anne Arundel County

in the state of Maryland, for divers good causes and considerations me therunto moving, have released from slavery, liberated, manumitted and set free, and by these presents do hereby release from slavery, liberate, manumit and set free, my negroes as follows (to wit); consisting of the following men, women and children. My negro man named Robert Ines aged about seventy years, he having a competency to support himself, and gain a sufficient livelihood, and maintenance; My negro woman Laura, daughter of the above named Robert, aged about thirty five years, now intermarried with William Barnes a free man of color, and her son William Henry, aged about fourteen years; my negro man Robert, son of the first named man Robert, aged about thirty two years, and able to work, and gain a sufficient livelihood and maintenance; my negro woman Zepporah, aged about thirty years, now intermarried with a free man of color, named Wiley Bailly, and her three children, Wiley a boy in his fourth year; Indiana a girl in her third year; Leah, a girl about eight months old. My negro woman Mary aged about twenty eight years, now intermarried with Purrell Carr a free man of color, and her children - Jacob, a boy, about seven years old; Stephen Sprigg, a boy about two years old, Jane an infant girl about ten days