

Bill of Sale ^{November Court 1719} William Crow. foreman

359

And the ap John Beach comes and defends the force and injury whereunto and says that he cannot gainsay but that he did profane the Lords day in the ap judgment and thereupon submits himself to the Court wherefore it is considered by the Justices here the 21st day of Moorn anno Dom 1719 That the ap John Beach pay the sum of two Shill. Sterd his fine for committing the offence ap as ap confessed and also pay the sum of One hundred and seventy pounds of Tobacco by the Court here adjudged for his Estate charges accruing on the premises ap a Certain David Roach being committed by M^r John March one of his Lord Ships Justices of the peace for said County as a Servant belonging to certain Darby Bryant for his appearance to this Court The said David Roach app^r The ap Darby Bryant not appearing at this Court according to his promise the ap Justice

The Court thereupon discharges the said David Roach

The Grand Jury again returns and delivers the present-ments to the Court as follows W^m Crow of the Grand Jury do present John Cockson and Sarah Edwards for not aping to their sum according to Law and all say so by the foreman Signed W^m Crow foreman

W^m Crow of the Grand Jury do present Sarah Edwards and John Cockson for not appearing to their sum according to Law and all say so by the foreman Signed W^m Crow foreman

W^m Crow of the Grand Jury do present Mary Bateman for not appearing to her sum according to Law and all say so by the foreman

And the Grand Jury being asked whether forme not touching Substance in the ap presentments might be altered to which all the Grand Jury Consents

And the Grand Jury being also asked whether the presentments where drawn up in forme and Ed^d to the same and if the foreman had signed to which they answered that the same was done on which this Court here discharges the Grand Jury

M^r Samuel Palmer produces to this Court a new Commission for the Sheriff office of this County and enters into bond for the perform