

June Court 1720

William Woodland having a certain James Dewry an apprentice bound to him to learn the Trade of a Carpenter and other Learning as by the indenture may more at large appear the sd Woodland saith that he cannot well perform as by indenture he is obliged pray that the Court will Consent he may assign him to another Trade on which the Court Consents that the said Woodland may assign the sd Apprentice to John Marshall of this County to learn the Trade of a Shoemaker the sd Woodland taking Care that what Else he was to do for the sd Apprentice may be performed

Court adjourns till to Morrow at Eight a Clock

July 29th 1720

Again Meets.

The Worshipfull	} <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Col Edward Scott M^r Michael Miller M^r Lambert Wilmer M^r John March M^r Samuel Wicks M^r Marmaduke Pilsen 	} Comps. Present
-----------------	--	------------------

Yesterday's Minutes Read and approved

Lordship

Edward Skinner 27th Jun. The sd Edward entered into Recognizance the 27th Jun. for his appearance at any time during this Court sitting in pursuance to which the sd Edward at this day in his proper person appears to the Same Ordered by the Court here that his said Recognizance for his appearance as aforesaid be discharged as also his Sureties Edward Skinner aforesaid his Recognizance taken to the use of his sd Lordship his heirs and Successors in the Sum of twenty pound Sterling to be levied in his goods and Chables Lands and Tenements Conditionally that if he did not appear and answer unto a certain Judgment found against him by the Grand Jury for feloniously stealing a horse being the Goods and Chables of a certain person unknown and that he was to answer the Same at any time during the Court sitting and that in the mean time he was to be of good behaviour and now at this day no person appearing to shew any Cause why the sd Recognizance should not be discharged the Court here discharges the Same Recognizance

John Walls and Darby The honor of the sd County planters at the same time aforesaid Sureties for the aforesaid Edward Skinner Entered into Recognizance