

five feet six inches high or thereabouts of a black complexion, was born & raised in Caroline County and has a large scar on the ~~left~~ left breast caused by the breaking of the collar bone, and a small one just over the right corner of the left eye, and has no other notable marks or scars that I have observed

In Testimony whereof I herewith subscribe my name and affix the seal of Caroline County Court this 26th day of August A.D. 1837.

(Seal)

James H. Fountain Clerk of the State of Maryland Caroline County Court Whereas a certain John R. Harper heretofore to wit, on the 15th day of February 1830 did send of a manumission duly executed and recorded among the said Records books of Caroline County, did manumit and set free a certain negro woman named Harriet Turner to be free from the 9th day of October 1845, and the said Harriet Turner (now calling herself Harri Webster) having made application to me for a certificate of her freedom in such case made and provided I do therefore grant her said application and hereby certify that from the said manumission she is now about twenty two years of age, five feet & one half inch high or thereabouts of a black complexion, was born and raised in Caroline County, and has a scar of a cut on the left thumb, and a small scar near the left corner of the left eye and has no other notable marks or scars that I have observed

In Testimony whereof I herewith subscribe my name and affix the seal of Caroline County Court this 26th day of August A.D. 1837.

(Seal)

James H. Fountain Clerk

State of Maryland Caroline County Court Whereas application hath been made to me by a negro man named Charles Dorman for a certificate of his freedom agreeably to the acts of Assembly in such case made and provided by which said acts free negroes and mulattoes are permitted to travel out of this State upon the obtaining of a certificate of his freedom being free born and whereas also upon the oath of John R. R. Hornum of Caroline County aforesaid that the