

State of Maryland Caroline county to wit; Whereas on the second day of June in the year eighteen hundred and two, Charles Blair of Caroline county, by deed of manumission, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded amongst the records of Caroline county, did manumit & set free a certain negro boy named Isaac, to be free on the first day of January eighteen hundred and twenty; And whereas the said negro boy named Isaac, now a man (calling himself Isaac Sullivan) hath made application to me for a certificate of his freedom agreeably to the act of assembly in such case made & provided, and being satisfied by the oath of Doctor Robert Stevens of the county aforesaid that the said negro man named Isaac for whom this certificate is made, is the same person mentioned in the said manumission, I do therefore grant him said application and hereby certify, that from the age expressed in the said manumission the said Isaac was twenty four years of age or thereabouts on the second day of June last past, he is about five feet four & a half inches high, of a dark brown complexion was born in Caroline & raised in Talbot county, has a large scar on his forehead which he says was caused by the kick of a horse, and no other particular mark or scar that I have discovered.

In testimony whereof I have subscribed my name

(Seal)

I give the Great Seal of my office this first day of January Anno Domini 1820
 J. P. Clark for Clerk of Caroline county court

State of Maryland Caroline county to wit; Whereas on the second day of June in the year eighteen hundred and two, Charles Blair of Caroline county, by deed of manumission duly executed, acknowledged and recorded amongst the records of Caroline County did manumit and set free a certain negro boy named Daniel to be free on the first day of January eighteen hundred and twenty; And whereas the said negro boy named Daniel (now a man calling himself Daniel Sullivan) hath made application to me for a certificate of his freedom, agreeably to the act of assembly in such case made and provided, and being satisfied by the oath of Doctor Robert Stevens of the county aforesaid that the said negro man named Daniel for whom this certificate is made is the identical person