

the party emblem or device, if any, contained in the certificate of nomination by which such candidate was nominated, or the party emblems or device by which the said candidate was nominated, if the said candidate shall have received more than one legal nomination. The size of such emblem, however, shall not exceed one-half an inch in height and one-half an inch in breadth. Any party in State convention or by State committee may select any emblem which shall be certified at the time and in the same manner that the nominations are certified, and which shall be the emblem of the party throughout the State, until changed by like authority. In case the same emblem is selected by two or more parties it shall be the emblem of the party whose certificate is first filed, and the other party may in like manner certify under. Where candidates have been nominated in any other manner than by a convention or primary election, or by a committee acting under the authority of a convention, an emblem may be adopted and certified in the manner aforesaid; provided that the emblem selected shall not be one already appropriated to a political party, for the purpose of enabling the illiterate voters to mark their ballots intelligently."
