

have all the power which may be necessary to execute said work. The said commission are hereby empowered to exercise the power of eminent domain, in order to condemn any land or interest in or building in the construction or maintenance of said sewerage system in the mode provided for by the general laws of this State, relative to condemnation of lands.

“The said commission shall appoint and remove at pleasure the entire force of employees employed by it, which may be required to construct and maintain said sewerage system, and all work done in the construction and maintenance of said sewerage system shall be by day laborers, who shall be registered voters of said city or of the counties of this State, whether employed directly by said Sewerage Commission or by any contractor under it, except such labor as requires technical knowledge and skill, which may be employed without these requisites. Said commission shall have power to pass such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of said work, and said Commission shall, from time to time, and as rapidly as said sewerage system may be available, require existing buildings, and those hereinafter constructed, to be connected with said sewerage system,

The said commission shall award all contracts to the lowest responsible bidders, which may be made in the construction and maintenance of said sewerage system.

The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall furnish said commission with necessary rooms and furniture.

Vacancies in said commission shall be filled by said commission, except where a vacancy occurs by death, resignation or removal of one or both of those appointed by the Mayor, subject to the confirmation of the Second Branch of the City Council, as hereinbefore provided, in which event, such vacancies are to be filled in the same manner as the original appointees were made, and the members of said commission shall be municipal officers, and subject to removal by the Mayor, as provided in the Act of 1898, chapter 123.

Said commission, shall not, under any circumstances permit the crude sewerage from the city of Baltimore to empty into the Chesapeake bay or its tributaries; nor