

shall any of the affluent or resultant of said sewerage be permitted to empty into said bay or its tributaries, until the same has been subjected to analysis by three expert chemists of well recognized repute, to be chosen by the State Board of Public Works, and said affluent or resultant by said chemists pronounced to be free from all impurities, which would be injurious to the oyster or fish industries of this State. The said State Board of Public Works shall publish the findings of said chemists immediately after the same have been submitted to it, by three insertions in all of the daily papers published in Baltimore city, over the signatures of said chemists, attested by their affidavits. Subsequent examinations shall, from time to time, be made; when in the judgment of said State Board of Public Works the same shall be deemed necessary, or when petitioned for by twenty citizens who are registered voters of said State and are personally interested in the oyster industry of the State, and when any subsequent examination is made, it shall be in all respects the same as that hereinbefore provided for; and if, as a result of said subsequent examination or examinations, any impurities, detrimental to the oyster or fish industries of this State, shall be found to exist in said affluent of said sewerage, or its resultant, the said State Board of Public Works is authorized to prevent any further flow of said affluent or resultant of said sewerage into the waters of said bay or its tributaries, until the said State Board of Public Works shall be satisfied as the result of a re-examination, that said affluent or resultant is free from impurities detrimental, as aforesaid, to the oyster or fish industries of this State. The privilege of filing said petitions, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be more frequently than once in every three months. Said examination and publication shall be at the expense of the city of Baltimore.

"Section 2. Be it further enacted, That the cost of construction and maintenance of said sewerage system, including both principal and interest, shall be raised and provided, for by general taxation, the necessary per centum to be levied by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, each and every year, upon all property liable to taxation in said city, and to be set apart and known as
