

William Colebourne
Sol: Colebourne & Co.

To the worshipfull Justices of Somerset County Court now sitting the humble Petition of William Colebourne and Solomon Colebourne humbly

Sheweth - that whereas a certain Road from Annansea Chapple to the bottom of Villa Annansea goeth throow some of the ground of the said William and Solomon Colebourne - where they design to clear and tend, to their great prejudice and detrement, your petitioners therefore humbly pray that your worshipps will grant such Order as in your wisdom you shall think fitt, that the said Road may be from Michael Holland Junr. his true field fence to the head of Jones Creek which is considerably nearer than the Road as it now stands - is to the Inhabitants and your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &c

The petition aforesaid being read and heard and the premises considered -

It is thereupon Ordered by the Court that the said William and Solomon Colebourne have Liberty to turn the Road from the head of Colebourne Creek to the head of Jones Creek, so far that they make the same New Road as near, passable and good as the Old Road and when the same New Road be so cleared and made by the said Wm. and Solomon Colebourne &c. It is further Ordered that a certain Thomas Williams and Thomas Dixon both of Somerset County Gent. view the same New Road, and see if it be as near, passable, and good as the Old Road and to make their Report to Next Court &c

John Davis
Celt.

To the worshipfull Justices of Somerset County now in Court sitting the humble petition of John Davis humbly Sheweth, that Whereas a certain Road runneth through a plantation of your petitioner to his great hurt and detrement, your petitioner prays your worshipps will grant such Order as in your wisdom you shall think fitt, that the said Road may be turned from the head of One Creek to the head of Another Creek which is considerably nearer, and will clear the said Road on my own Charge and your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray

The petition aforesaid being read and heard and the premises considered
